

BERLIN

Architect (m/f/x) Science & Healthcare

Overview

Are you looking forward to interesting and challenging tasks within a design-oriented and innovative environment that also offers you the stability and structure of a successfully grown company? Are you looking for an opportunity to contribute your creativity and personality? Then you'll be a great fit for us!

Our strong community and longstanding success are based on an appreciative, open, family-like atmosphere and the knowledge and commitment of our employees.

The use of state-of-the-art technologies and our expertise across all service phases according to HOAI enable us to develop high-quality solutions and concepts.

Become part of our team as an Architect (m/f/x) in the field of science & healthcare and apply now!

You can expect the following

- Design planning and final planning in service phases 2–5 according to HOAI
- Creation of digital building plans as a self-sufficient area of responsibility
- Specialist planning coordination and integration
- Contribute to the further development of BIM planning at HENN and the Science & Healthcare division

You bring along

- A degree in architecture
- Professional experience in planning international projects, preferably in science & healthcare
- Enjoyment in drafting and design in all HOAI phases
- Proficient with the BIM method, as well as with Autodesk Revit and Adobe CS
- Inquisitiveness about digital, sustainable planning processes
- Advanced language skills in German and English

We offer

- Attractive and diverse, well-known (large-scale) projects and plenty of creative freedom
- Support for personal and professional development: HENN Academy including recognition by the Chambers of Architects, language courses, individual seminar and certification programs in cooperation with partners
- High quality and clear processes using state-of-the-art tools and future-oriented working methods such as the implementation of Revit as an office-wide BIM solution
- Attractive remuneration and 30 days vacation p.a. plus special leave for anniversaries and special occasions
- Flexible and family-friendly working time models
- Modern office in the heart of Berlin (Alexanderplatz) with excellent public transport connection
- International and interdisciplinary working environment
- Joint events (office outing lasting several days and Christmas party) and team activities (company run, soccer tournament, pretzel monday, after-work get-together)
