

Interior Designer (f/m)

Beijing

We are currently seeking experienced Interior Designers (f/m) for our Beijing office. Prospective applicants will have worked on demanding projects for private and public clients.

Tasks

- Conceptual design to pitch for projects, competitions and potential clients
- Signage and lighting design
- Space planning, test fitting and schematic design schemes for interior design projects
- Design development for presentations and documentations
- Formation of construction documentation packages including drawings, schedules and specifications

Requirements

- Master Degree in Architecture or equivalent
- At least five years' professional experience, preferable in large scale projects for commercial interior spaces
- Experience in working in China
- Professional proficiency with Revit, AutoCAD Architecture and Adobe CS
- Solid level of experience in interior design focused firms
- Coordination experience with signage and lighting design
- Excellent levels of written and spoken English

Your application includes

- CV/résumé
- Portfolio
- References
- Salary requirements